

BACPR Sponsorship Options

2022

The British Association for Cardiovascular Prevention and Rehabilitation (BACPR) is an affiliated group of the British Cardiovascular Society and a registered charity. BACPR is a multi-disciplinary body to represent and serve the interests of all professionals engaged in cardiac rehabilitation and aims to ensure programmes for cardiovascular prevention and rehabilitation are clinically effective and achieve sustainable health outcomes throughout the UK. BACPR has over 1000 members consisting of an array of disciplines involved in cardiovascular health, including: nurses, physiotherapists, cardiologists, GPs, dietitians, occupational therapists, psychologists, exercise physiologists and exercise professionals.

BACPR produce national guidelines for structural programmes addressing cardiovascular health and work closely with other organisations in promoting excellence across this speciality.

Each October the BACPR holds an annual conference which usually attracts a large audience (300+ delegates) and each May a BACPR Exercise Professionals Group Spring Study (150+ delegates). These events are a great opportunity to showcase your organisation to health and exercise professionals working in the cardiovascular field. Alongside this BACPR hold webinars, each one focusing on a particular theme relating to cardiovascular rehabilitation.

Please see below the varying sponsorship opportunities to support BACPR.
